

To make sure you and your guests are prepared to visit the below museums and cultural centers, please check the website of the organization before going. Select institutions also require advance reservations, so make sure to read the guidelines listed on each website.

Many institutions continue to offer virtual tours and programming. Check for "Virtual Tour" links below. They can be found under the name of the organization. But for the latest online offerings, please visit the website of the organization you are interested in to see what content is available.

Think of this site as your ticket to many of New York's cultural treasures! Please take advantage and visit and enjoy!

Con Edison's Strategic Partnerships program has played a major role in maintaining New York's status as the cultural capital of the world by supporting organizations that add to quality of life. Many of these organizations offer all our employees and retirees discounted or complimentary tickets to museums, natural environments, Broadway and off-Broadway shows, dance performances, and other events.

The hot links below will take you directly to the respective sections.
